

Kendall C. '23 and Ella D. '23 have been selected as College Board National Recognition Program award recipients! These Mercy Girls earned recognition due to their academic achievements and outstanding performance on the PSAT.

Kendall, a recipient of the National African American Recognition Award (NAARA), says “My Mercy education has helped me to achieve this honor by giving me the space and comfort to expand my knowledge while challenging me to become the best version of myself.”

Ella, a recipient of the National Hispanic Recognition Award (NHRA), emphasizes “Through Mercy’s various programs such as International Baccalaureate and the rigor of the honors courses, I have been able to excel in my classes and as a student. This recognition is a byproduct of the superb education at Mercy.”

Congratulations, girls!
